

Strike Bulletin: Ending Poverty Wages at UC

Day 4: July 17, 2008

UC Berkeley Strikers Begin Siege on Office of the President!

Yesterday UC Berkeley moved most of its pickets to UCOP. By morning, UC Administrators had padlocked the doors.

Strikers have been joined by the UCB Union Coalition, East Bay Interfaith, East Bay Alliance for a Sustainable Economy, and Alameda Labor Council.

On Friday at noon, Northern California Campuses will join Berkeley at UCOP for our Strike Finale!

San Francisco Chronicle Op-Ed: UCSC Professor Dana Frank

“UC executives, wallowing in their half-a-million-dollar salaries, are using the state budget crisis to mask their own greed. There's plenty of money around for anti-union lawyers and PR spin.....Let's hope President Yudof is brave enough to end UC's moral corruption and immediately grant union members a decent wage and lock in their benefits.”
