

WHAT IS JANUS vs AFSCME?

➔ Janus vs AFSCME is a pending U.S. Supreme Court case pushed by corporations to attack public sector working people like us. It'll help UC push working people out of your union, which will hurt efforts to secure a fair contract that ensures safe working conditions, fair pay, affordable healthcare, and a secure retirement.

WILL UC USE THIS AGAINST US?

➔ Janus vs AFSCME is designed to weaken workers' ability to bargain a strong contract as a union. UC will try to divide members by encouraging you to opt-out of your union. UC has learned that a strong membership makes it harder for them to attack our job security and our benefits.

HOW CAN WE FIGHT BACK?

➔ Janus vs AFSCME will only weaken your union if you let it. That's why we're all signing new membership cards—to ensure that UC doesn't have the power to divide and conquer. By signing a new membership card, you're re-committing to standing united with your coworkers to fight for what you deserve.
